Puducherry, dt.05 /06/2023

ORDER

With the approval of the Competent Authority, financial powers up to the monetary limit of ₹ 5.00 lakh in each case are hereby re-delegated to the Collector, Karaikal, and Regional Administrators of Mahe and Yanam, for sanctioning proposals towards incurring expenditure on repairs, maintenance and service (including replacement of spares) of Medical Equipment (which are not under an approved AMC) in the Govt. Hospitals / Health Centres of the respective Region, including on proprietary / single quotation basis, as an exceptional case under Rule 166(2) of GFR, 2017, subject to the following conditions:

(a) The Head of the concerned Health Institution shall furnish a certificate to the effect that the repairs, maintenance and service (including replacement of spares) of the specific Medical Equipment is of urgent nature for the delivery of medical care to the patients, and the procurement by calling of tenders / quotations is not practicable in view of the delay this may cause in rendering the Medical Equipment functional.

(b) The Sanctioning Authority, the Collector, Karaikal / Regional Administrator, Mahe / Yanam, as the case may be, is satisfied that the necessity for incurring the expenditure on emergency / contingent basis is genuine, and calls for exercise of these powers under Rule 166(2) of the GFR, 2017, in public interest.
